IMAGINE UBC 2025 ORIENTATION LEADER

Faculty of Land & Food Systems

Position Description

Imagine UBC and the University's first year transition programs serve as new students' formal welcome to the University, an invocation to the learning community they have joined. Imagine UBC helps students begin to find and build a community at UBC, feel supported from their first day on campus and through their first year, and provides a beginning to a learning experience that will challenge, stimulate and prepare them to achieve their goals, use their strengths and meet the challenges of our local and global communities.

Imagine UBC is coordinated through the Centre for Student Development and Leadership within the Vice President, Students' portfolio working in collaboration with staff, faculty and students from across the University in the development and implementation of the program.

The Imagine UBC Orientation Leader position plays a crucial role in the delivery of UBC Orientations, through communicating with a cohort of new-to-UBC students in the month of August, and by providing direct peer support to this group on Imagine UBC (September 2, 2025).

This volunteer posting is for 70 Faculty of Land and Food Systems (LFS) Orientation Leaders supporting both first-year and transfer students.

Primary Functions

As an Orientation Leader, you should expect to:

- Contribute to an environment at UBC that is dedicated to excellence, equity, and mutual respect.
- Build and support an engaged community of new-to-UBC students
- Facilitate delivery of Imagine UBC
- Engage in personal and professional development
- Role model outstanding student leadership on campus
- Understand the larger picture of Orientations at the University and assist in the implementation of that vision
- Provide informed and timely referrals to campus resources and opportunities to students in your group to support their transition, as needed
- Actively contribute to the overall growth and development of the Orientation Leader team

Time Commitment

Please prepare to participate in this role in-person at the UBC Vancouver campus on September 1, 2025 and September 2, 2025. You will not need to attend in person training or events for this role prior to September 1, 2025.

Other commitments include:

- Participate in a 50-minute virtual synchronous selection process during the Summer of 2025, along with about 30 minutes of related asynchronous activities

Land and Food Systems

- Complete asynchronous learning and development activities through the LFS Student Leadership Portal.
- Actively support and contribute to the online LFS ROOTSS program throughout the summer
- Participate in Orientation group community building social in August
- Complete asynchronous online training as required in August/September 2025
- Attend mandatory training on Monday, September 1, 2025
- Attend Imagine UBC on Tuesday, September 2, 2025

Benefits of Participating

- Involvement in the University community
- Build respectful and inclusive communities
- Develop group facilitation, online facilitation, effective communication, community development, and team building skills
- Build connections with university staff and peers, and give back to UBC community

Responsibilities

Build and support an engaged community of new-to-UBC students by:

- Leading an Orientation group of approximately 10 students on September 2, 2025
- Creating and animating communities of friendship and belonging for all new-to-UBC students
- Building peer relationships within your individual group, as well as amongst fellow Orientation Leaders
- Embracing your role as a UBC ambassador for student leadership and representative of Imagine UBC and the Faculty of Land & Food Systems
- Communicating important updates from your Senior Orientation Leader to your group via email or other social media

Support LFS ROOTSS Program Delivery by:

The LFS ROOTSS Program is designed to support new-to-LFS students from their acceptance in the Faculty till the end of their first year in the Faculty.

- Contributing to LFS ROOTSS Canvas modules as requested by the LFS Student Services team.
- Attending events and programs through the ROOTSS platform with their new-to-LFS student group.
- Participating in the social discussion boards through introducing yourself and providing your perspective on your student experience in the LFS ROOTSS Canvas portal.
- Assisting in the evaluation of the LFS ROOTSS program and articulating recommendations moving forward.

Facilitate delivery of Imagine UBC by:

- Assisting with the organization and delivery of Imagine UBC activities for new-to-UBC students
- Maintaining proper communication throughout the planning process to ensure successful program delivery
- Providing feedback for overall program delivery and articulating recommendations moving forward

Engage in personal and professional skill development by:

- Developing competencies in areas including communication, teamwork, social and community organization, analysis and problem solving, initiative and motivation, willingness to learn, and adaptability

Role model outstanding student leadership on campus by:

- Upholding UBC's Respectful Environment Statement as a responsible member of the UBC community

THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Land and Food Systems

- Embracing the role as an ambassador for student leadership and representative of the larger UBC campus community and the Faculty of LFS
- Actively participating as a member of a larger community of leadership across the UBC Vancouver campus

Desired Experience and Skills

- Must be a student in good academic standing and enrolled as an undergraduate student in the Faculty of Land and Food Systems until December 2024
- Exceptional leadership skills
- Excellent organizational, communication, and interpersonal skills
- Excellent time management and conflict resolution skills

- Willing to engage in ongoing professional and personal development opportunities
- Knowledge of LFS, UBC and volunteer/work experience
- Knowledge of and/or sensitivity to issues affecting students and their transition to Canada or to UBC and LFS

Commitment to Equity and Inclusion

Equity and diversity are essential to the UBC community, and are essential to LFS Imagine Day programming that will support all incoming students. A diverse leader community can help contribute to effective community building and to the empowerment of voices that have been underrepresented or discouraged. We encourage applications from members of groups that have been marginalized on any grounds enumerated under the B.C. Human Rights Code, including sexual and gender identity, gender expression, racialization, disability, political belief, religion, marital or family status, age, and/or status as a First Nation, Metis, Inuit or Indigenous person.

- We expect all applicants to be committed to equity and inclusion, and leaders will be provided with ongoing training related to these topics. We expect all applicants to show respect for all people and their differences, demonstrate fairness and equity, work to understand the perspectives of others, promote cooperation and collaboration, bring out the best in others, demonstrate empathy and use respectful language.
